May the Grace and Joy of the Risen Christ be with you all.

HAPPY EASTER!

‘Pope Francis’ 2018 Easter message will be available on TV, radio and the web this weekend. Rome is five hours ahead of NY time, so his noon message will be airing live in NY at 7am.

Cardinal Dolan will be celebrating the 10:15 am Mass at St Patrick’s Cathedral. This Mass is extremely popular and there is even a ticket system to assign the seats. If interested in celebrating Mass at the Cathedral, you might want to try the Easter Vigil at 8pm Saturday, or the 8:45 am, noon or 5:30 pm. You can also watch the Mass on TV or the Internet.

Our Kolping Family members in Westchester (and nearby) may be interested to learn that the Fathers and Brothers of Maryknoll invite all to Holy Week at Our Lady Queen of Apostles chapel. For more info see https://archny.org/events/holy-week-at-maryknoll.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Congratulations to the newly elected and returning Kolping members who have agreed to serve on our Board of Directors this year. It’s a thankless job most of the time, so let’s thank them now and be sure to keep them in our prayers throughout the year. We pray for discernment, wisdom, perseverance and vision as they lead our Society forward in 2018.

LENTEN PROJECT
Thank you to those who’ve donated to the National and New York 2018 Lenten project to help our Kolping brothers and sisters in Kenya acquire goats. Kolping International is running this project that aims to teach participants how to forage for the small livestock, produce milk and use by-products to feed their families and generate a modest income. John and Betty Reitter, John and Bertha Unger, Albert and Joan Sartorius, Lisa and Peter Carruthers, Wolfgang Hahn, Ron Seelbach, Lou Colletti, Katrina Dengler, Al and Linda Ferony, Norbert & Marilyn Dengler and family, Therese and Romeo Cojocaru and family, Vicki and Mike Longworth and family and Teddy Dengler XI have contributed to the Lenten project as of this writing. And there’s still time for you to participate. Please send your check to the Kolping House on 88th Street or to the Society Secretary (Joan Dengler, to NY Kolping, 165 East 88th Street, New York, NY 10128). Or, if you have sent it directly to national, please let Secretary Joan Dengler know, so we can include you in our report of Kolping New York’s impact. Make a difference in the world! If each of us in NY Kolping gives $1, we could provide two families with goats. If each of us gives $10, we’d be helping 20 families take a step forward. And if we could each give $1 for every day in Lent, or $40 each, that would impact 80 families. Send your gift today.

The relentless weather in March left several trees down or ready to fall at Kolping on Hudson. Fortunately there was no property damage. A big thanks to Richie Povilonis, Nick Colletti, Chuck Smith, Joe Szoldatits, Peter Mersits, Mike Tompkins and Frank Kurcz for removing the trees from the road, cutting the trees up for firewood, and clearing the access road.

General Meeting & Elections—March 4, 2018

We gathered at St Joseph’s on 87th Street to begin our Annual Meeting Day with prayers for guidance and inspiration for the coming year. Father Ramsey presided at the German Mass and our own Kathy Weigand served as lector. Our President Katrina Dengler represented the Kolping Society in the Offertory collection.

After Mass, we joined the congregation from the monthly German Mass at their coffee hour. We enjoyed some goodies and coffee and tea and visited with old and new friends.

Meanwhile, at the Kolping House, Geovanny and Wolfgang were busy making a delicious meal for us. Special thanks go to our staff—Ken, Ray, Gail, Max, Rodrigo, Angel and Geovanny—who made the house ready for our visit, as well as ensured the clean up afterwards!

John Noonan and Albert Sartorius greeted us upon arrival and helped us get our reservations and payments squared away. We were fortunate to have Pat Farkas, National Administrator join us for our event.

Therese Portilla collected the meal tickets and Donna Richardson, Alexa Richardson, Jerry Ladenhauf, Chris Ulrich and Lisa Carruthers stepped up to serve us our delicious lunch of sauerbraten, chicken, spaetzle, and potatoes as well as vegetables that taste so much better than when we make them at home.

The General Meeting and Board elections began with a welcome from President Katrina Dengler.

Vice President Gerhard Schmitt gave the House report for 88th Street. We’re running around a 90% occupancy rate—markedly up from the levels experienced in the winter. Giovanny has been working on repairs and improving the furniture. Con Ed recently did a walk through to help us with ideas on reducing our energy costs.

KOH Manager Heidi Umland reported that the rooms are rented for the coming season and the calendar for special events has filled up nicely. We’ve also been able to land Fire Departments and School groups for weekday slots. Some significant expenses from the past year included $9K for awnings and $9K for windows. The Society contributed $15K for the new barn roof which was completed for a total cost of $18K thanks to the efforts of our talented members.

Ted Dengler, X shared the controller’s report and John Reitter reported on the Treasury. We are grateful to both of these gentlemen for overseeing our Society’s finances.

Lou Colletti, our national board representative, updated us on the Lenten Project. We are participating in an effort supervised by International Kolpingwerk which will help Kolping members in Kenya become more self-sufficient. Our gifts will help the members purchase goats. With training and mutual support, our Kolping brothers and sisters will learn how to better feed their children and possibly generate a small income from the ownership and care of the small livestock. All members are encouraged to consider donating $1 for each day of Lent towards this noble project.

John Reitter updated us on events at the United Nations and the committees that work to strengthen families across the planet.

Gerhard Schmitt reported on KOVA and Lia Portilla shared the status of the Radio Station.

The Annual Election for the Board of Directors was overseen by the committee of Gerhard Schmitt, John Noonan and Albert Sartorius.

We owe deep gratitude to the members rotating off the board—Peter Carruthers, Ernst Endrich, Ann Hemsing, Bob Hemsing and Dennis Noll. They have served us well over many years and our Society is stronger for their efforts. The new directors include: Lou Colletti, Howard Jaeger, Frank Kurcz, Chris Ulrich and John Weigand. We thank them for taking on this task and pray for them going forward.

Concluding the day, we were reminded that member Karen Staub has very generously donated tickets for the Mets/Yankees Subway Series game on Friday June 8th so we can generate some useful funds for the continued upkeep of Kolping on Hudson. Contact Lou Colletti to reserve your $10 chance for this amazing prize.

Father Bretone concluded the meeting with his Praeses report and Blessing.

Message from the President from the General Meeting

I would like to thank those who are retiring from the board this year: Dennis Noll, Ernst Endrich, Peter Carruthers, Bob and Ann Hemsing.

They have all volunteered their time on the board and I am thankful to them. Ernst has served in many capacities for so many years: on the board, at KOH and as manager both here at K88 and KOC. We hope he will continue to help whenever he can. Peter has hit term limits and Dennis retired to concentrate on his family. I hope both will come back when they can.

I want to give special thanks to Bob and Ann Hemsing. Both have served as President and have given an immeasurable amount of time and effort to Kolping. Both have given me an immense amount of help and guidance on the responsibilities of being President and will be greatly missed. Bob has been a source of reminders of what needs to be done and to advise on how it was done in the past. His knowledge, experience and vision have been invaluable to me as I have taken on this role.

Ann, with her practical advice on how to run events: guiding me on being the face of Kolping, so I can stand in front of you and look like I know what I am doing.

They have served faithfully for many years, donating their time and efforts. They have always acted with the best interests of Kolping on mind.

I wish them all the best on their retirement from the board and hope they can enjoy all the Kolping events now, without having to worry about the responsibilities.

2018’s Kolping Family Ski Trip was perfectly scheduled to make use of all the March snow we received this year and 40 participants headed up to Mount Snow to ski, cross-country, snow shoe and enjoy the hot tub. The Innkeepers, Royal and Ned Wilson, kept us cozy and well-fed. Nearly a dozen of our group extended the stay by arriving on Thursday and making it a long weekend. A good time was had by all. Mark your calendar for 2019, we’ll return March 8-10 next year.
St. Patrick’s Day has come and gone with one of its greatest fanfares: marching bands, dancers, floats. It was a sight that stole your heart, no matter what your forbearers’ origins. The first St. Patrick’s Day parade took place not in Dublin but in New York City, in 1762—even preceding the adoption of the Federal Constitution in 1776.

Closely associated with the marching and pomp is the gustatory aspect of St. Patrick’s Day and the first course which would be associated with the celebration is “Corned Beef and Cabbage”. But don’t take for granted that the feast and the folly are of the same origin—they are not.

Although the exact beginnings of corned beef are unknown, it most likely came about when people began preserving meat through salt-curing. Evidence of its legacy is apparent in numerous cultures, including ancient Europe and the Middle East. The word corn derives from Old English and is used to describe any small, hard particles or grains. In the case of corned beef, the word may refer to the coarse, granular salts used to cure the beef. The word “corned” may also refer to the corns of potassium nitrate, also known as saltpeter, which were formerly used to preserve the meat.

“Corned Beef and Cabbage” found its way to America when the newly arrived Irish immigrants of the 1800s, victims of famine and oppression, took to it with gusto and the two have been closely associate ever since. The new wave of immigrants brought their own food traditions, including soda bread and Irish stew. Pork was the preferred meat, since it was cheap in Ireland and ubiquitous on the dinner table. The favored cut was Irish bacon, a lean, smoked pork loin similar to Canadian bacon. But in the United States, pork was prohibitively expensive for most newly arrived Irish families, so they began cooking beef—the staple meat in the American diet—instead.

So how did pork and potatoes become corned beef and cabbage? Irish immigrants to America lived alongside other “undesirable” European ethnic groups that often faced discrimination in their new home, including Jews and Italians. Members of the Irish working class in New York City frequented Jewish delis and lunch carts, and it was there that they first tasted corned beef. Cured and cooked much like Irish bacon, it was seen as a tasty and cheaper alternative to pork. And while potatoes were certainly available in the United States, cabbage offered a more cost-effective alternative to cash-strapped Irish families. Cooked in the same pot, the spiced, salty beef flavored the plain cabbage, creating a simple, hearty dish that couldn’t be easier to prepare.

After taking off among New York City’s Irish community, corned beef and cabbage found fans across the country. It was the perfect dish for everyone from harried housewives to busy cooks on trains and in cafeterias—cheap, easy to cook and hard to overcook. It was even served alongside mock turtle coup at President Lincoln’s inauguration dinner in 1862.

Far from being as Irish as a shamrock field, this St. Patrick’s Day classic is as American as apple pie.
