KOLPING BROADCAST RADIO WKBR 102.3 FM HIGHLANDS, NY

Starting July 30th our New York Catholic Kolping Society will be broadcasting Catholic Radio on 102.3FM in the Somers area. This is a wonderful opportunity to live out the New Evangelization Pope John Paul II called for and share our faith and Kolping ideals. However, this endeavor will take time, energy, and money—we need everyone to get involved! Kolping is building the station from the ground up, so there are opportunities to be involved in announcing, broadcasting, & programming.

TRIPLE THE MONEY! Until 2015 KOH Close Out, every dollar donated will be doubled by a group of VERY Generous Donors! (For example, when you donate $50, Kolping Radio Fund will receive $150!) Please get our Faith on the air and help Kolping Radio benefit from this limited time offer by being as generous as possible! For more information, talk to: Cecilia Portilla: cgdportilla@gmail.com, Katrina Dengler: kdengler67@hotmail.com. Mail Donations to: 165 E. 88th St New York, NY 10128 Attn: Radio. Or hand to Heidi, Jan or Lou Colletti at KOH.

MISSION STATEMENT: We, the members of the Catholic Kolping Society of America, extend the vision of our founder, Blessed Adolph Kolping, by promoting the development of the individual and family; we foster a sense of belonging and friendship through our program of spiritual, educational, charitable and social activities.

JACK MCGEE, JR., long-time Kolping member and Bulletin contributor, passed away July 14, 2015 on his 92nd birthday.

Jack had lived in Jackson Heights, Queens. Since Jack lived on his own, both James Minarik and Albert Sartorius, Sr. looked in on him from time to time, helping get him to his doctor's appointments, paying the bills, etc. They were also both instrumental in helping with the funeral arrangements.

The wake was held at Conway Funeral Home in Jackson Heights, with many thanks to the funeral directors Michael Heradia and Will Gonzalez and their assistants.

Monsignor Garcia and James Kiernan organized the funeral, and Father Herrera presided over the Mass at St. Joan of Arc RC Church in Jackson Heights, NY. Many Kolping members were in attendance, as well as members of the Irish Ladies of St. Joan of Arc.

Since Jack was a WWII veteran, the New York State National Guard sent their Color Guard personal to attend his funeral Mass. It was a very moving ceremony. Master Sergeant Bernard played Taps on his trumpet and Specialist Kuchera and Private Goslar folded the American flag which they presented to Albert Sartorius, Sr. Albert will donate the flag to Kolping in honor of Jack McGee.

Jack was a devout and kind gentleman, who very much enjoyed his Kolping Family. He will be sorely missed. I will especially miss him and the monthly package of information he would send to include in the Bulletin.

Please bring these items to Kolping-on-Hudson or contact Heidi (914-736-0117) with any questions. ## BEAUTIFUL STAINED GLASS WINDOWS FOR PURCHASE AT KOH

There are 4 stain glass windows at kolping on hudson available for purchase at $1,500 each. They are already framed and a name could be etched on them at additional cost. Some members may want a name in memory of a loved one or just have your family name. The stained glass are available to be seen at Kolping-on-Hudson. If interested, please contact Heidi Umland or Rich Povolonis (914-736-0117).

Here is a brief history of the windows: Eileen O'Leary's brother-in-law, Fr. Michael O'Leary worked in a parish on Long Island built in the 1800s. The church was being renovated & windows replaced. Fr. O'Leary asked the Pastor if he could have them. He passed them on to his brother & his wife. After about 10 years they had not decided where to place them. Eileen always thought they would perfect for a Retreat House. They put them at a local antique store and this is where Bob Hemsing saw them. When he presented the idea of purchasing them to the KOH Committee, we said yes. The O'Leary Family was at KOH for Father's Day Mass & they were very pleased with the one stain glass window that was done in memory of Bert Bruegger.

PLAYGROUND AT KOLPING-ON-HUDSON

After providing many years of great fun and entertainment, the condition of the playground has deteriorated and will need to be replaced under the current federal regulations. The KOH Committee is in the process of obtaining estimates that will include the most up to date playground equipment and rubber mulch. We greatly appreciate the recent donation of $1,000 from John & Ada Brauweiler for this project. To make your tax deductible donation, contact Heidi Umland or mail a check to Catholic Kolping Society, 95 Montrose Point Road, Montrose, NY 10548.

GERMAN MASS St. Joseph's in Yorkville, 404 E. 87th St.

Every first Sunday of the month, the Holy sacrifice of the Mass is celebrated in German at 10am. Confessions in German before Mass. For information please call Julia Winter (347-852-3184). For information regarding counseling and sacraments in German, please contact Rev. James Boniface Ramsey, Pastor (212-289-6030).

OUR HOLY FATHER'S AUGUST 2015 INTENTIONS

UNIVERSAL: VOLUNTEERS—That volunteers may give themselves generously to the service of the needy.

FOR EVANGELIZATION: OUTREACH TO THE MARGINALIZED—That setting aside our very selves we may learn to be neighbors to those who find themselves on the margins of human life and society.

Kolping member Andy Marussich sent in these two photos of him and his daughter Jessica and releasing 26 goldfish in the pond at KOH. # Father's Day at KOH submitted by Jan Kessler and Jennifer Scheuermann

Father Kolping smiled down on us giving us a reprieve from the rain so that we could enjoy Father's Day on Sunday at KOH! It rained in the morning and cleared up for the afternoon just in time for lunch. Over 150 people enjoyed a delicious meal. On the menu was fresh ham, gravy, mashed potatoes, sauerkraut, apple sauce and canolis for dessert.

Many thanks and much appreciation to the volunteers and kitchen staff who worked both Saturday and Sunday: Doris Petsche, Tracie Truncellito, Alfred Vogl, Jr., Michael and Jennifer Scheuermann and special thanks to Andy Marussich for washing the big pots and pans after dinner was served—that was a tremendous help! Also a big thanks to all of our lovely waitresses.

Thank you to John Reitter and Christine Preisser for drawing the winning Joseph Sartorius raffle tickets.

Fr. Bretone celebrated Mass and Don Simons provided the music along with Cathy Fugate who sang. Thank you to Christine and Julia Weltner who did the readings at Mass and thank you to Heide Bruegger, Casey and Eric for helping with the offertory. Immediately after Mass there was the unveiling of the beautiful stained glass window in memory of Bert Bruegger. His name is etched on it and the stained glass will be permanently affixed to a window at Assmuth Hall.

Fr. Bretone was kept busy as he then blessed the bee hive and the new Blessed Mary statue that was donated by St. Peter & Paul Cultural Society. We thank all those in the society for their generosity and support of the NY Kolping Society. The statue is in the same location as the previous statue at KOH and it is located on a path behind the children's swings.

The scholarship awards were awarded to Alexa Richardson (daughter of Donna Richardson) and Jessica Funnell (daughter of Matthew & Debra Funnell). Congratulations to both of them and we wish them the best.

Fourth of July at KOH submitted by Jan Kessler; photos by Charles Ruppmann

We thank Dennis Noll, Nick Colletti and Gerry Ladenhauf for all the time they spent cooking on the grill. It was well worth it because there was a large crowd in attendance and all enjoyed hotdogs, hamburgers, spareribs and salads Lou Colletti helped with all the prep work and we thank Barbara Roche for making the delicious holiday cupcakes for dessert. We thank Charlie Ruppmann for taking all the great photos.

“The Desperate” Wins Best Short Film at Hollywood Film Festival

submitted by Martin A. Kelly

Iranian Jewish filmmaker Ben Hur Sepher

Nothing good has ever been said of the Holocaust. How could it? But an incident at one of the death camps inspired a one-act play which helped to focus a ray of light in the face of tyranny for the world to see.

The scene is the operating room of one of those camps (for personnel). It is late in the war. On the table is the anesthetized body of a German officer. But, this is not an ordinary soldier as it is the only son of the Kommandant.

The father is feverishly seeking a qualified surgeon who can save his son's life. The only qualified person is in their midst—one of the inmates. The question is whether this captive, who has been degraded to the status of firewood, would be willing to perform the life-saving operation on his foe's son.

The offer of safe passage to a neutral country is made. The tables are turned: The captor is seeking mercy from the prisoner—the only one who can grant it.

After an eye-to-eye confrontation, the inmate surgeon agrees he will operate. But he must be fed nutritious food, permitted to bathe, and be provided with a pair of serviceable eyeglasses. An ominous barrel of spectacles that had belonged to victims is brought for his selection.

Before the surgery can commence, however, there is an obstacle. The surgeon cannot concentrate with a portrait of “Der Fuhrer” hanging on the wall, facing the operating table. The Kommandant orders its removal, but a staff officer strongly objects. Another confrontation is avoided when the operating room nurse uses the only covering, a blood soaked sheet to drape over the painting. The operation is a success and the Kommandant is ready to fulfill his promise. The inmate doctor rejects it: he had been degraded and shorn of the last shred of human dignity. All he has left is his pride. He takes his place with the other condemned. In the distance, the sickly gray smoke spirals upward from the chimney: a sign “business as usual.” The nurse removes the bloody covering over the picture to reveal that the hemoglobin had adhered to the paint defacing it to look like a scarlet palette. Did the Kommandant give the surgeon “special” treatment so that he would be alive when the Allies liberate the camp? The author does not tell us.

The thought-provoking drama challenges us to consider our commitment to human dignity and our understanding of God's grace. The film won 67 international film awards—declared a “masterpiece”.

Genocide, ethnic cleansing, annihilation, and lynching has happened throughout history in many lands. Is there an answer? Father Kolping may have said it best: “Man must look at his fellow man as his brother.
