OUR HOLY FATHER'S AUGUST 2018 INTENTION

THE TREASURE OF FAMILIES: That any far-reaching decisions of economists and politicians may protect the family as one of the treasures of humanity.

Kolping NY Reflection: Pope Francis' monthly intention certainly resonates with the Kolping Society and our focus on supporting families and using the family as the name for each local chapter.

His image of the Family as a Treasure of Humanity is inspiring.
Let's keep all families in our prayers throughout the month.

News & Notes

OKTOBERFEST – SATURDAY, AUGUST 18, 2018

Can you help make our Oktoberfest fundraiser even more successful?

The 3 things we need are: 1. Bake, 2. Package, 3. Publicize

1. Bake – Bake your specialty cake, pie or cookies so we can sell servings as part of our Dessert Array in the food tent.

2. Package – Make a themed basket to include as a prize at the Ladies' table. Basket of Tea, Baby Basket, Movie Basket and Pasta Basket have been popular. What would you put in a gift basket?

3. Publicize our event by posting the flyer included in this bulletin. Email it to your contacts, share it in your Facebook groups, hang copies in your library, supermarket and health club. More attendees make a bigger bottom line.

Baskets should be brought to KOH by 8/12. Baked goods can be dropped off at the Food Tent when you arrive at the picnic. Publicity starts now! Together we make this a terrific event.

ACCORDIONS AROUND THE WORLD

Our own Don Simons will be playing as part of "Accordions Around the World" at Bryant Park in NYC! This annual summer program on Wednesday evenings is free and open to the public. It features performers with variations of this instrument and many genres of music. Don will play on September 5th between 5:30 and 7:30pm. His set will include selections from American Swing, show tunes and other favorites. Spend an evening in NYC and check it out!

MARCH UP FIFTH AVENUE

Mark your calendar for Saturday, September 15th. Our Kolping Family will be marching in the Steuben Day German American Friendship Parade in NYC. It's a great time and the weather is always beautiful. March with us then consider coming back to the Kolping House on 88th Street for a post-Parade party.

2018 ANNUAL CONVENTION SEPTEMBER 7-9, 2018

Every two years, Kolping USA holds a meeting of all the Kolping families from across the country. This year's Convention is being hosted by Philadelphia Kolping.

Among other business, the Annual Distinguished Service Awards are presented at the Convention. Helmi Pinner and Fr. Richard Bretone are the NY Kolping Family awardees for 2018. Please congratulate them when you see them. Helmi is a smiling, hard-working and dependable presence throughout the KOH season as well as at our events in Manhattan. Father Richard serves as Praeses for both our NY family and for Kolping USA. He makes possible all of our liturgies and provides spiritual guidance for our Board and our entire Family.

Consider attending to cheer on Helmi and Father Richard. You'll also learn more about the Kolping Society and the work we do throughout the U.S. and around the globe. The convention runs from September 7 through September 9th.

Troop 36—Iona Island Hike

Submitted by Bob Hemsing

On July 7th, Troop 36 participated in a private tour of Iona Island, with Historian and Archeologist Doc Bayne. Closed to the public, tour permits are limited to less than a hundred people a year and Troop 36 was very fortunate to gain access.

Iona Island has a story that goes back to prehistory. Doc showed us evidence of Native American use of the island; the colonial farms and settlements; and the 1800s, when it attracted tourists with an amusement park, hotel and picnic grounds. More recently, the island was a major US Navy arsenal from 1900 to 1946, complete with explosions and, of course, the famous "Mothball Fleet" following World War II.

It was a spectacular day with plenty of vistas that reminded us how beautiful our own backyard is.

Murder Mystery Night Submitted by Kathy Weinberg; photos by Charles Ruppmann

The 3rd annual Murder Mystery "Who's sowing your seeds" hosted by Kathy Weinberg at Kolping on Hudson has been solved! And the killer was Kelly, the vegan baker played by our own KOH member Kelly Noll. The story line and cast of characters were just amazing. The evening started with a description of the plot and introduction of all the characters. Kelly Noll as Kelly the vegan baker who has an agenda—and the rest of the cast of possible suspects to the murder. Adam Engle, handsome politician entering bake off contest to gain popularity, John Weigand as Vlad, very quiet and mysterious Russian baker, Kim Parra as wife to mayor who is also having an affair with Adam. Richie Povilonis as Mayor Richard who dies from poisonous powdered sugar. Julie Diloreto as Inka, baker from Sweden also undercover FBI. Sarah Hysjulien as Sarah—girlfriend to mayor also in love with Adam, and Kathy Weinberg as reporter. Special effects and sound added by Jason Ehrens who also works on set of Saturday Night Live and Jimmy Fallon Show. Everyone was so entertaining and kept the crowd's attention with every move and every word!

During dinner each table group of guests had discussions about who might have done the crime and then narrowed it down to one person. Well, it was only one murderer but not only does Kelly kill the Mayor but also Adam! It was a double murder! Nasty Vegan Baker!!!! There were many great detectives in the crowd who guessed who was the murderer and we thank each and every one of you for your enthusiasm and participation.

Also thanks to Kelly and Adam for running with the title and base idea to create such a wonderful production. Thanks to the kitchen staff, Kathy & Mike Weinberg, Nick Colletti, and Gerald Ladenhauf, for providing such a delicious meal. Servers: Brian Weigand, Kristen Szoldatits and Kevin Bruegger. Biggest thanks to Heidi and Richie for allowing us to put the show on again especially when another function was taking place and for set up and clean up! We also want to thank Charles Ruppmann for capturing all of the memorable photos during an evening full of fun and laughter. See you next year!

Tropical Night submitted by Jen Scheuermann; photos by Maria Stang and Nick Colletti

Even though the skies looked fairly menacing for the entire evening and there was just a little bit of rain, we still were able to have another festive and fun-filled evening at our annual Tropical Night Dinner & Dance at KOH on July 21, 2018! DJ Mike played all of our favorite tunes and the dance floor was hopping!

Christine & Lisa were serving up all of our favorite drinks including the nice tropical inspired drinks like Punsch, Pina Colada, and Daquiris!

Thank you to the wait staff that were as always super attentive and quick with getting the meals served and cleaning up the dining room: Anneli, Alexa, Kristen, and Sophia.

The dinner consisted of coleslaw, green salad, rice pilaf, corn bread, Hawaiian style grilled chicken, pork with an apricot infused gravy, and grilled pineapple. For dessert, we enjoyed whipped key lime pie cupcakes with a side of fresh strawberries & cream and taste of a traditional Hawaiian dessert called Ono Butter Mochi.

Serious thank yous and kudos to all of those that helped in the kitchen with all of the food prep, cooking, baking, and cleaning: Al Ahrens, Evelyn Ryzerski, Beverly Cantu, Anneli Cantu, Camile Cantu, Owen McDonald, and Mike and Jen Scheuermann.

Thank you to Heidi, Richie, Helmi, Gertie, Tracie for decorating.

And thanks to Heidi Umland and Richie Povolonis for making sure everything was in order!

World Cup Game

Submitted by Maria Stang

On Saturday June 23 excitement was high at KOH as we watched the World Cup Germany vs Sweden game. A great time was had by all! What a game! What a win!! Special thanks to Alfred Vogl and Tracie Truncellito who took an early morning ride to the Smoke Haus in the Catskills to pick up wursts for our after game celebration. Thanks also to Michael Scheuermann for helping to cook up the goods. Was really delicious!

The American Revolution and the Value of a Spy

submitted by Martin A. Kelly

The American Revolutionary War, also known as the American War of Independence, had many adverse turns, particularly for Washington's side. But luck seemed to make her timely appearance.

In 1780, Washington and the patriotic forces seemed to command what is Brooklyn Heights (presently Cobble Hill). But moving by water to a more secure location (from New York, to New Jersey, to Philadelphia) was a scary venture because it was a water route, and Christmas Eve was upon them.

The British Territory in the surrounding area was under the control of German surrogates, the Hessians—mercenaries.

An American patriot, left over from the French and Indian days (1760s) John Honeyman pretended he was not influenced by Washington and his venture for independence. Under this guise, Honeyman questioned the Hessian commander on the military status of the command since it was in proximity of Washington's opposing troops.

He informed the commander, Johann Rall, that the American forces were completely demoralized and unable to function as a military unit.

With this "spy information" Washington surmised the intelligence as valid and the German posts would be relaxed to celebrate the Christmas feast in a gala style.

Washington hustled the remnants of his forces into as many open row boats as he could find. The water was frigid and choppy and the floes of ice collided with the boats' bows. But Washington sailed on. He is depicted standing in the bow of his lead boat, sailing to his new fortifications and a better chance to gain their long-sought liberty.
