KOLPING FOOD DRIVE CONTINUES!

Can you bring a can of tuna or chili and a box of pasta when you next come to Kolping? Maybe some peanut butter or black beans? Our donations will go to local food pantries like the VA, Graymoor, and the Franciscan Sisters. As Father Kolping said, "The needs of the times will teach you what to do."

MISSION STATEMENT: We, the members of the Catholic Kolping Society of America, extend the vision of our founder, Blessed Adolph Kolping, by promoting the development of the individual and family; we foster a sense of belonging and friendship through our program of spiritual, educational, charitable and social activities.

SUBWAY SERIES Photo submitted by Johanna McGreevy

The Subway Series Game was July 2, 2019 at Citifield—Yankees VS. Mets. The Mets won the game 4-2. Once again we thank Karen Staub for her generous donation. Thanks to all the Kolping Members & Friends who purchased Raffle Tickets. We raised $1,600 at KOH that is being used toward our new air conditioners. The winners of the 4 tickets were long-time members Christine & Dino Trastevere. Christine has been a part of the Kolping Family since a young child. She's the daughter of the late Lubie & Osta Ondracek (Osta is still a Kolping member). Dino purchased 10 Raffle Tickets on Father's Day. On one of the tickets Christine wrote in her father's name Lubie Ondracek. That was the winning ticket that Fr. Bretone announced as the winner.

News & Notes

OKTOBERFEST – SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 1

Can you help make our Oktoberfest fundraiser even more successful?

The 3 things we need are: 1. Bake, 2. Package, 3. Publicize

1. Bake your specialty cake, pie or cookies so we can sell servings as part of our Dessert Array in the food tent. 2. Make a themed basket to include as a prize at the Ladies' table. Basket of Tea, Baby Basket, Movie Basket and Pasta Basket have been popular. What would you put in a gift basket? 3. Publicize our event by posting the flyer on the last page of this bulletin. Email it to your contacts, share it in your Facebook groups, hang copies in your library, supermarket and health club. More attendees make a bigger bottom line. Baskets should be brought to KOH by 8/25. Baked goods can be dropped off at the Food Tent when you arrive at the picnic. Publicity starts now! Together we make this a terrific event.

Or pick one up at the Kolping House. Submit the completed form and an application fee of $50 to one of the committee members. It can take a while to convene the volunteer committee to review the applications, so we thank you for your patience.

Dear Mr. Hemming and the Catholic Kolping Society of New York,

Thank you so much for your generous gift as part of the Joseph Sartorius scholarship contest. I'm actually leaving next week to go on a dialogue of civilizations through my school (Northeastern University), where I will earn 8 credits studying at the United Nations in Geneva, Switzerland. This money will go towards covering expenses while I'm there - thanks again!

All my best,
Paloma

FOURTH OF JULY BBQ & BONFIRE

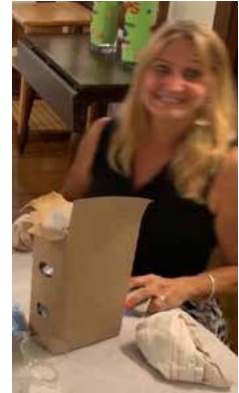

Dozens of members joined together on the fourth of July to celebrate the nation's independence, eat super delicious food and enjoy a very nice afternoon and evening together.

Thanks go out to Jen and Mike Scheuermann for spearheading the feast. Alfred Vogl and Nick Colletti are always stepping up to help with grilling duties. Therese Sinks and Tracie Truncellito saw to it that we enjoyed a few new desserts this year. Izzy Lovasz and Frank Kurcz' niece Cornelia baked up some triple threat brownies. And, of course, our manager Heidi Umland and her right hand Richie Povilonis ensure that our beautiful building and grounds are ready for every celebration and summer day.

We thank Evelyn Ryzerski for her special addition (sssshhh!) to make our bonfire a bit brighter.

Murder Mystery Night

2019's Murder Mystery was another fun and funny quest to determine "whodunit?". A cast of professional actors mixed with Kolping members to entertain the assembled guests. The mystery incorporated dead animals, shady politicians, a big energy company and lots of dead bodies by the end of the show. Thank you to Kelly Noll and Kathy Weinborg for developing the concept. Thanks go to Kelly's band of friends who make the show so much fun. Thank you to Kathy Weinborg for preparing an awesome meal with four choices of entrée! We all started with a lovely salad of mixed greens with an apricot vinaigrette dressing. Choice of entrée included chicken marsala, bacon-wrapped roast pork loin, penne a la vodka and vegan stir fry. Dessert was cheesecake or ice cream and coffee or tea. Every bit was delicious!

Tropical Night at KOH

July 20th was certainly a tropical weather night! But the crowd at KOH didn't let the high temperatures slow them down a bit. Our cooking crew – Jen and Mike Scheuermann, Kathy Weinborg, Helmi Pinner and Natasha and Peter Bruegger worked all day to prepare the feast. Peter and Mike spent several hours grilling in the heat and humidity to the fresh pineapple, 30 pounds of marinated skirt steak and 40 pounds of marinated chicken was cooked perfectly.

The Tandys dropped by ahead of the event to share produce from their amazing garden. Beautiful summer squash and freshly-picked cucumbers were incorporated into the meal.

Many thanks to Gerti and Helmi for making the light and refreshing Raspberry dessert cups and to Jennifer for making the whipped Key Lime pie cupcakes and haupia. Haupia is a traditional coconut-milk based Hawaiian dessert which made our Luau complete.

Christine and Lisa and their helpers at the bar made sure we had our favorite tropical drinks including pina colodas and strawberry daiquiris. Servers Anneli and Camile Cantu and Kevin Bruegger stayed busy expediting and serving the salads, dinner and dessert to our 70+ guests.

The DJ kept us so busy on the dancefloor that there weren't a lot of pictures taken. If you have any to share, send them in and we can print them in next month's bulletin.

Thank you to Natasha for bringing the tropical feel into the kitchen and supplying the kitchen crew with festive outfits!!

Thank you again to Heidi and Richie and the team that worked to decorate KOH with the tropical theme. Also thanks to Brian Weigand for life guarding after hours.

Finally, thank you all for joining us for the "hottest" night both figuratively and literally!
