Mother's Day at KOH photos by Maria Stang and Teddy Dengler

The Summer season officially opened on a cool and damp Mothers Day 2018. But the spirits inside the dining rooms at Kolping on Hudson didn't let weather stand in the way of a good time.

Thanks to all the volunteers at the clean-up weekends and the daily efforts of Rich Povilonis, our home in Montrose looked as beautiful as ever. Chef Kathy Weinborg led her kitchen crew of "sous chefs" Nick Colletti, Jerry Ladenhauf, Mike Weinborg, Emily Weinborg and Joan Dengler to prepare a delectable luncheon for 150 guests. Special guest chefs Natasha Borodin and Helmi Pinner were recruited to prepare the melon/prosciutto/strawberry first course that put smiles on the diners' faces. Kristen Szoldatits, Emily Weinborg, Manny Socorro, Kevin Bruegger and Teddy Dengler provided excellent service and made sure that roast beef dinners were delivered hot and special requests were fulfilled. And, they washed all the dishes! Christine Kern and Danielle Kern, as usual, provided us all with prompt, friendly and precise service at the bar.

We're grateful to Father Richard who presided at Mass and for Don Simons for providing music for both the Mass and the procession to crown Mary. The Specht Family served as lectors as well as crowned Mother Mary.

The whole day was made possible by Heidi Umland who organizes all the players to make sure all the needed pieces are in place.

Fr. Pier Giorgio Dengler Ordination submitted by Katrina Dengler

On May 19th, I was proud to witness the Holy Spirit descend on the former Daniel Dengler in his ordination to priesthood, as Fr. Pier Giorgio Dengler!

In the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, in Washington D.C., Timothy Cardinal Dolan laid his hands upon Br. Pier Giorgio, along with 8 of his fellow ordinandi, and by the power of the Holy Spirit ordained them to the Sacred Order of Priest.

It was a wonderful service (and we had front row seats!), to see the completion of the process, procedure and traditions of the ceremony, from the ordinandi prostrate on the floor of the Basilica, the promises of obedience, the laying of the hands, not only of the Cardinal, but of also the Dominican priests, to the investiture with Stole and Chasuble and the Anointing of the Hands.

After the ceremony, the newly ordained priests imparted their first priestly blessings on family and friends.

Although the weather did not co-operate as one traditionally hopes (it rained throughout the day), the Dominican House of Studies hosted a tent covered reception on their back lawn after the Mass.

As it had rained throughout the week, the ground was soaked and the lawn squishy with water, but that did not dampen Fr. PG's ten nieces and nephews from running around with their pants rolled up, finding worms and pine cones! The Hillbilly Thomists (all Dominican priests and brothers!) performed blue grass music on to the delight of Fr. PG's brother-in-law Sixto, who recorded the event (album available at <https://www.dominicanajournal.org/music/the-hillbilly-thomists/>).

Fr. Pier Giorgio is a former board member of Kolping, and a lifelong Kolping member. Please pray for him and his fellow newly ordained, that the Holy Spirit may always stay close to them and give them strength to do not as they want, but God's will.

"The world looks to the priest, because it looks to Jesus! No one can see Christ, but everyone sees the priest, and through him, they wish to catch a glimpse of the Lord! Immense is the grandeur and dignity of the priest!" ~ St. John Paul II

From the President's Mother's Day Mass Announcement

This year we will celebrate our National convention in Philadelphia. It is the weekend AFTER Labor Day. At the convention, we honor those who have served Kolping over the years by awarding to members of each Kolping Family the Distinguished Service Awards. This award is the highest honor which is given at the National level. It is given to members whose service supports the ideals of Fr. Kolping.

This year, I am very pleased and honored to announce the winners, the actual award will be given at the convention, so I hope you all come to the convention and celebrate with them.

Helmi Pinner and Fr. Richard Bretone are our honorees!

Helmi Pinner has been a member for over 30 years—she's here at Kolping on Hudson during the summer and is always volunteering to help at all the events. She cooks Sunday breakfasts and helps out with all the cooking. Helmi is always cleaning up after KOH weekend events and does all the cleanup of the large kitchen area at opening and closing dates during the year. She is helpful to all the new members and creates a warm welcoming environment. Helmi also volunteers at Oktoberfest, spending the day manning our raffle table. We greatly appreciate all that she does!

Fr. Richard has been our Praeses for the last 19 years. He consistently offers us his religious and spiritual guidance and for all our members. He enthusiastically celebrates the Masses on Mother's Day, Father's Day and St. Nikolaus party every year at our Kolping Houses. He also celebrates mass for the initiation of new members. He travels from Brooklyn or upstate NY to be with us on these special Mass occasions. He serves on our NY Board of Directors, attends meetings and offers spiritual and practical guidance. Not only does he support our NY Family, he also volunteered to be our National Praeses!

We had a 3rd nominee, but when he was informed of this high honor, he humbly declined, saying that he has received so much from Kolping, including meeting his wife here, that he doesn't want to receive anything back. I hope he will change his mind! This is the type of service and attitude that has built our New York Kolping family!

We thank Helmi, Fr. Richard and the humble person for their service to Kolping and encourage all members to come to the convention in Philadelphia to see them presented with their award! See the details in the National Banner and in the mail to make your reservations and plans!

Wonder Drugs for Victory submitted by Martin A. Kelly

"Justice delayed is justice denied". This aphorism suits the deferred recognition denied the scientist who discovered the first commercially available antibiotic.

Gerhard Johannes Paul Domagk (1895–1964) was a German pathologist and bacteriologist. He is credited with the discovery of Sulfonamidochrysoidine, the first commercially available antibiotic and marketed under the brand name Prontosil.

Domagk was born in Lagow, Brandenburg, the son of a school headmaster. Until he was 14, he attended school in Lubsko, Poland. Domagk studied medicine at the University of Kiel, but volunteered to serve as a soldier in World War I, where he was wounded in December 1914, working the rest of the war as a medic. After the war, he finished his studies, and worked at the University of Greifswald, where he researched infections caused by bacteria.

In 1925, he became a professor at the University of Münster. He also started working at the Bayer laboratories at Wuppertal. Domagk was appointed director of Bayer's Institute of Pathology and Bacteriology, where he continued the studies of Josef Klarer and Fritz Mietzsch to use dyes, at that time a major product of IG Farben, as antibiotics. He found the sulfonamide Prontosil to be effective against streptococcus, and treated his own daughter with it, saving her the amputation of an arm.

In 1939, Domagk received the Nobel Prize in Medicine for this discovery, the first drug effective against bacterial infections. He was forced by the Nazi regime to refuse the prize and was arrested by the Gestapo for a week (this was because the Nazi-critical Carl von Ossietzky had won the Nobel Peace Prize in 1935, which had angered the German government and resulted in German nationals not being permitted by law to accept the Nobel Prize). Sulfonamides had revolutionary antibacterial effectiveness for its time, surpassing phage therapy, but were later replaced by penicillin. However, Domagk's work on sulfonamides eventually led to the development of the antituberculosis drugs thiosemicarbazone and isoniazid, which helped to curb the epidemic of tuberculosis which swept Europe after World War II.

After the war, in 1947, Domagk was finally able to receive his Nobel Prize, but not the monetary portion of the prize due to the time that had elapsed.

Domagk changed his focus to tuberculosis and chemotherapy against cancer. He continued to live and work in Wuppertal. Domagk died from a heart attack in Burgberg near Königsfeld, Schwarzwald.
