Memorial Day

Submitted by Jennifer Scheuermann; photos by Maria Stang and Jan Kessler

On this day we pause to honor all military members who died in service for this Country. Kolping on Hudson held its annual Memorial Day BBQ and we thank all of you who chose to spend this rainy and cold day with us. Although the weather was not the greatest, there was plenty of food and good cheer to go around and we hope that everyone had a relaxing time.

Huge thank yous to all of the volunteers and staff that worked under the tents grilling and in the kitchen with all of the preparations and cleanup: Helmi Pinner, Steve Brunner, Nick Colletti, Tracie Truncelitto, Miriam Herman, Gerry Ladenhauf, Al Ahrens, Michael Scheuermann, Jennifer Scheuermann, Richie Povolonis, and Heidi Umland.

And, many thanks to Hans and Doris Lechner for the wonderful assortment of desserts they donated for us to enjoy!

Father's Day

Submitted by Jennifer Scheuermann; photos by Jennifer Scheuermann and Jan Kessler

The weekend weather report was looking like Father's Day was going to be a washout, but once again Father Kolping smiled down on us and kept the rain at bay except for a quick sun shower—we even had some sun and the pool was open! We thank you all for not letting the rain stop you from coming down and enjoying a nice meal along the Hudson with your Kolping Friends and Family. We served a total of approximately 150 dinners in two seatings. The menu consisted of Garlic Mashed Potatoes, Sauerkraut, Fresh Ham and Gravy. And for dessert, we hope you enjoyed the house-made Apple Strudel with vanilla ice-cream and caramel drizzle.

This Father's Day weekend was extra special for me because even though we were working in the Kitchen and my mom was not able to join us (she is on the mend from knee surgery), I was lucky enough to spend it with my Dad Al Ahrens, my two sisters Beverly Cantu and Evelyn Ryzerski and my husband Mike Scheuermann. And on Saturday, my oldest niece Anneli Cantu joined us in the Kitchen and helped make the Apple Strudel. Thank you guys so much for all the help and support.

Many thanks and much applause to the waitstaff for the day: James, Paloma, Kristen, Julia, and Emily. You guys did a phenomenal job of getting the dinners served and the dining room turned over for the second seating. Thank you!

We hope everyone enjoyed their meal and had a nice time relaxing and chatting with old friends and maybe even met some new friends. Hope to see you all again soon!

FATHER'S DAY MASS

Thank you Fr. Bretone for always making the long trip from Brooklyn to celebrate mass during our special events at KOH—we enjoyed the beautiful music provided by Don Simons and Eva. Immediately after mass, Fr. Bretone, Katrina Dengler, and Gerhard Schmitt inducted three new Kolping family members: Robert & Eva Lupica, Kate Elliott, Gregg Scank and Claire & Olivier Mathey.

Bob Hemsing, Chairman of the Scholarship Committee, announced the college scholarship essay winners and we congratulate Genevieve Longworth and Anna Buono and wish them the best.

All of our members and new members that attended the brunch enjoyed all the delicious breakfast items. There was definitely enough food choices for everyone. This is one of our favorite meals and many wish we could have it more often. We thank Kathy Weinborg, Jennifer Ahrens Scheuermann, Al Ahrens, Mike Scheuermann for preparing everything including made-to-order omelets, waffles, bacon, roast beef, bagels and desserts.

We thank Joe Szoldatits, Frank Kurcz, Ed Specht Peter Mersit for all the work they did to set up Assmuth Hall for mass and our new member ceremony.

Fr. Bretone celebrated mass and we greatly appreciate Don Simons for his music and also the following new members that participated during mass: Larry Kunz, Tom Waitkins, John Wisniewski. Katrina Dengler, President, welcomed everyone and thanked all the staff and volunteers that do such a great job with the many details of planning and set up for our new member brunch and ceremony. A special thank you to Patti Graney and Chuck Smith for all of their help.

Katrina Dengler and Fr. Bretone inducted over 40 new members to our Kolping family. We are so pleased that several of our member's children joined our Kolping Family—Edward & Lisa Specht's daughter Julia Specht and John & Mary Buono's daughter Anna Buono. Both are college students.

Dogs of War submitted by Martin A. Kelly

Exactly 180 years ago, a German immigrant, Charles Feltman invented a tasty sausage sandwich of finely mixed pork called the "hot dog".

The tantalizing taste of this "banquet in a bun" held sway of the public, especially the vacationers at the nearby resort—Coney Island. The influx foreigners to New York City created problems of crowding and the need for relaxation. Fortunately the city of New York was located on a series of islands, called the Brighton or Rockaways. They were connected by a subway system called the Culver Line: The king pin being Coney Island, a swimming resort, amusement park, and restaurants. Some of the mouthwatering specialties of Coney Island were: frozen custard, pizza, soft shell clams, salt-water taffy, etc.

To continue with the Feltman sausage, there was a competitor from within his own ranks, an employee. Nathan Handwerker, concocted his own version of the "frank" slightly inferior in taste, but 5 cents cheaper in price.

The competition continued but Faltman "threw in the towel" in 1946. More recently, however, Michael Quinn, a Brighton Beach native, has restored the competition between Feltman and Nathan. He has his own outlet on St. Marks place in Brooklyn and certain gourmet butcheries.

Descendants of both clans are anxious to see the outcome of this rivalry.

"Dogs of War"—N.Y. Post, M. Licea, April 16, 2017

Michael Quinn has revived Charles Feltman's original hot dog, which rivaled Nathan's but lost the frank war in the '50s.
