OKTOBERFEST AT KOLPING-ON-HUDSON

The annual Oktoberfest picnic at Kolping on Hudson was a resounding success and a great time was had by all—members and non-members, volunteer staff and guests. We thank all of the dozens of people who came together to make this happen and keep our beautiful home on the Hudson River thriving and growing. The Alpine Squeeze played for us and got the crowd up and dancing.

We especially recognize some of our most senior members who turned out with their families. Reinhold Stehle has been a member of the Kolping Society for over 65 years both in Germany and here. Al Sartorius and John Noonan have been members of Kolping New York for over 70 years. They got to know each other in the Kolping Boy Scout troop when they were still too young to officially join the Society. John and Al served many years on our Board of Directors and it was great to see them up in Montrose once again. Albert Buchholz who joined in 1954 is at Kolping on Hudson regularly during the season as he assists in repairing machinery, designing and building the gazebo and helping to keep the property in good repair.

CINCINNATI CONVENTION

Submitted by Alex Schmitt

After a long 4 years, the 43rd National Convention convened in Cincinnati September 9-11, 2022. It was wonderful to reunite with old friends or make new ones and enjoy the exchange of ideas and fellowship.

The week-end started with a meeting of the National Board followed by the meet and greet at the Embassy Suites Hotel on the Kentucky side of the Ohio River. Saturday morning the delegates began with Mass celebrated by Cincinnati's Father Dan Kroger, Father Bretone, and Deacon Bill McLoughlin from San Francisco while the non-delegates went to the Cincinnati Aquarium and Bus Tour.

The first order of business was approving the last convention's minutes followed by elections. New York's Lou Colletti will remain as a National Trustee. Several proposals were discussed during the meeting beginning with the Lenten Project. It was decided to continue working with the goats in Kenya, this project will be expanded to provide plastic water tanks that collect rain water and stackable gardens made from recycled plastic. The National Scholarship Program will continue providing scholarships to High Schoolers and College students. A new program would offer loans to Kolping Families should a financial crisis and/or emergency repairs to their facilities arise. A committee for this loan program, including our own Peter Caruthers and Maria Steigerwald, was assembled to explore the viability, requirements, and guidelines. Another committee was formed to draft a roll-out plan to assess interest of our younger members for a Youth Meet-up. Lisa Brinkmann and Lou Colletti will be heading the social media committee to explore how National can best use social media. Finally, Natasha Borodin joined the committee to determine where, how, and when the next National Convention will take place

After the meeting buses transported everyone to the Cincinnati Kolping facility for the awards banquet. Members of the various families received the Distinguished Service Award. Our New York recipients are Jozsef Szoldatits, Alfred Vogl, and John Weigand. The Chicago Family received the award for the highest membership increase since the last convention. Music was provided by the Sound Body Jazz Orchestra.

The final day began with Mass celebrated by Father Dan Kroger at the beautiful Mother of God Church in Covington, KY. A group picture was taken in front of the church. We then made our way to BB Riverboats for the final event, a luncheon cruise on the Ohio River. A great time was had by all and we look forward to the 44th National Kolping Convention.

STEUBEN DAY PARADE AND K-88 AFTER-PARTY

The 65th Anniversary German-American Steuben Day Friendship Parade marched up Fifth Avenue on Saturday, September 17. Our Kolping Society was well represented with dozens of members and friends joining our contingent.

We came together afterwards at our Kolping House on 88th Street for a celebration organized by Lou Colletti and Geovanny Ramirez, House Manager. Jen Scheuermann hooked us up with German specialties. Lou made her delectable Linzer Tarts. Geovanny and his lovely wife prepared the meal—Brats, Frankfurters, chicken, loaded Sauerkraut, macaroni salad and Kartoffelsalat - all super delicious. Donna Richardson streamlined the serving with a crew of helpers. Gerhard Schmitt, Peter Carruthers and Kevin Bruegger staffed the bar and kept the Oktoberfest brews flowing.

The Diamond Chips provided musical background for our celebration and the crowd danced the afternoon away. Our lovely Jaeger girls Natasha Borodin and Alex Schmitt ran a 50/50 raffle and poured shots for those so inclined. Many of our guests dressed up in traditional garb, making the day even more festive—thank you Spechts, Boeschls, Schmitts, Portillas, Natasha, Patty, Donna, Lou and Allison! Thanks to Charles Ruppmann and Alex Schmitt for sending in photos.
